

THE BEST ON EARTH

Says Mrs. Staples of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Taunton, Mass.—"I could not eat or sleep for six months, had fainting spells and could not walk without help for three months, caused by female trouble. My cousin, who was a doctor, told me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it helped me greatly. Then during the Change of Life I used the same remedy. I am seventy years old now and am able to do my own housework and walk one mile to church every Sunday morning and evening. I am recommending the Vegetable Compound to my friends having the same troubles as I had. Your remedy is the best on earth. I cannot find words to express my gratitude to it.—Mrs. SUSAN C. STAPLES, 337 E. School St., Taunton, Mass.

The reason that thousands of women from all parts of the country write such grateful letters is that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has brought health and happiness into their lives, once burdened with pain and illness such as displacement, inflammation and ulceration. Why don't you try it?

YESTERDAY ANNIVERSARY OF GREAT HISTORICAL EVENTS

Washington, April 6.—Today was the anniversary of great events in history.

One hundred and thirty years ago George Washington was elected first president of the United States by the first session of congress, which convened in New York.

Fifty-eight years ago the Union and Confederate armies grappled in the great battle of Shiloh.

Eleven years ago the late Rear Admiral Peary "nailed the Stars and Stripes to the north pole."

Three years ago the United States declared war on Germany.

WESTERLY

Walter Rich, 50, was before the Eighth district court in Cranston, on Monday, charged with assaulting his father, Frank E. Rich, age 75, who was so severely injured that the services of a surgeon were required. The son was adjudged guilty and was sentenced to ninety days in the county jail and to pay the costs. The elder Rich was a Civil war veteran and lost a leg in action. The junior Rich is not a chip of the old block, so to speak, but an idler and heavy drinker, when intoxicated was available, and evidently had no difficulty in securing a substitute. The assault took place in the Rich home, Eastep Sunday.

The Rich family formerly resided in Westerly, where the elder Rich was in the dry goods business in the store in the Dixon block, now occupied by Smith, the florist, under the firm name of Davis and Rich. From 1887 to 1891 he was postmaster at Westerly, and it was during his term that the post office was moved from the Dixon block, in the store now occupied by the Rhode Island Garage company, to the brick building that was on the site of the present post office. It was during the term of Postmaster Rich that the letter carrier service was established in Westerly and in the first year of his administration in 1887. The carriers were John Allen, John Delavan and James Potter. Mr. Allen is still in the service. Walter Rich was a clerk in the office. Frank Rich later engaged in the machinist business with Vinton C. Stillman. He is a past commander of Hancock post, G. A. R.

At the annual meeting of the corporation of Christ Episcopal church, vestrymen were elected as follows: Frank C. Paxon, Fred P. Babcock, Job Thorp, Harry Milner, Andrew W. Fisher, Harry B. Agard, Charles H. Richmond, Arthur L. Perry, John A. Paxon and John S. Holland.

Due to an abscess of the throat, Mrs. Annabelle Briggs Leaman, wife of Thomas P. Leaman, died suddenly Sunday night at the Hotel Uplike, East Greenwich. Mr. and Mrs. Leaman arrived there a month ago from Cincinnati, with their two sons, one of whom is a student at East Greenwich academy and the other is attending school elsewhere. Both were spending Easter vacation with their parents. Mr. Leaman is a draftsman at the Gallaudet aircraft plant at Chepachet.

Reuben Secor, age 74, claims he is the father of the youngest son of a Civil war veteran. He resides in Wickford where the baby was born two weeks ago. If there is a younger baby whose father saw service in the Civil war the Secors will relinquish the claim. The mother is 26.

The Westerly probate court, Judge Edward M. Burke, was in regular bi-monthly session, Tuesday afternoon, beginning promptly at 2 o'clock, the judge being a strong advocate of punctuality. The will of Fred C. Bruecker, who died February 23, 1920, was allowed, in which his widow, Winifred Bruecker, is sole beneficiary, and nominated as executrix. The nomination was approved and bond placed at $300. Eugene B. Pendleton was appointed appraiser.

The inventory of the estate of George L. Williams, showing valuation of $1442, was approved for record. The executrices were authorized to sell at not less than inventory price the fixtures and supplies of the barber shop of deceased.

The petition of the widow of John S. Crandall, for the widow's dower, was continued to April 20.

Inventories were received and ordered recorded in these estates: Estate of Elizabeth Moore Bishop, valuation, $1237.17; Frederick E. Fowler, $39,427.74.

Gertrude S. Fowler, executrix of the estate of Frederick E. Fowler, petitioned for allowance for support of family. Continued to May 4, with order of notice.

Rachel E. Richmond was appointed administrator of the estate of her late husband, Charles W. Richmond, Bond $10,000. W. Russell Dower, appraiser. Upon petition of Margaret S. B. Babcock, the Industrial Trust company was appointed administrator of the estate of Daniel Courland Babcock, a resident of Westerly, who died in New York, Feb. 25, 1920. Bond $30,000. Eugene B. Pendleton was named as appraiser.

The first and final account of Alice Marston, administratrix of the estate of John Marston, were received, examined and ordered recorded.

Alexander G. Thompson was appointed guardian of his two daughters, Alice A. and Ruth P., both minors over the age of 14. Bond in each estate $500. Appraiser Eugene B. Pendleton.

The heirs-at-law of the estate of Abby K. Witter, presented releases to the administrator, and they were ordered filed with the estate.

Abby S. Lane, administrator of the estate could not be found for administration. Report ordered filed with estate.

Petition was received for probating will of Walter J. Bennett. Continued to April 20.

First and final account of Henry L. Burdick, executor of the estate of Ada L. Burdick, continued to April 20.

Lacotics.

The Granite cutters of Westerly are still on vacation, pending the settlement of their demand for an increase to $1 an hour which they claim is not excessive when compared with wages paid to other tradesmen. There is no strike or lock-out.

Votes taken in several manufacturing concerns indicate that employees are in favor of beginning work an hour earlier and quitting an hour earlier in the summer season.

Ernest E. Rogers, a former mayor of New London, and president of the New London County Historical society, has accepted an invitation to present a paper at the next meeting of the Westerly Historical society. His subject will be, The Virginia Statute For Religious Freedom, which was founded and presented by Thomas Jefferson.

Two airplanes, bound east, presumably from Boston to New York, passed over Westerly, Tuesday morning. The chief reason for reducing the pay of water commissioners is said to be that several candidates had expressed a willingness to serve without pay.

The pay roll money of local industries is conveyed from the bank under protection of armed men. This has been in vogue in some instances for many years, but now the custom is general.

Police Chief Brown will soon have "No Parking Here" signs in several sections of the business center.

Captain Ed Roche and Sergeant Greene, of the railroad police, were here Tuesday, to assist in the identification of the stolen goods found in the Smith quarry Saturday.

Can the Dead Talk? was the subject of discussion at a meeting in the Seventh Day Adventist church, Tuesday evening, under the direction of Rev. W. R. Uchtman.

STONINGTON

Miss Marie Zangrandi, first assistant librarian of the Westerly Memorial and Library association, was the speaker at the meeting of the Stonington Travel club, Tuesday afternoon. Her subject was Public Libraries, one with which she is familiar by reason of more than ten years of practical experience, and her address was appreciated by the club members and their guests. Miss Zangrandi was given a rising vote of thanks.

The Stonington High School minstrels, who have been in active rehearsal several weeks, are to give a performance in Borough hall for the benefit of the Athletic association. The performance will be repeated in the Broad Street school house next week, and later at Mystic.

The Stonington Community Service association, recently incorporated, has purchased the large frame building in Water street, known as Ryon's hall, formerly the First Baptist church. The lower floor has long been used as the town court room and lock-up, and the upper floor for polo, basketball games, and entertainments. The building will be remodeled so as to be fitted for general welfare work.

Stonington Pointers.

Mr. and Mrs. Antonio Vumbo have returned from a lengthy visit in Italy. Civil Engineer G. K. Crandall finds that the proposed Elm street sewer is a feasible proposition.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Higgins have rented the Hunter house in Main street.

Danbury.—Attorneys of Danbury tendered a dinner at the Hotel Green recently to Judge John W. Banks, who has presided at the March term of the superior court in this city. The affair was entirely informal.

NOANK

Gunner John H. Hood of the U. S. S. Brooklyn, attached to the Asiatic fleet, spent Sunday with friends in the village.

Charles and Paul Lamphere of Old Mystic were callers here Sunday.

Miss Mae Floyd of New Haven, spent the holiday with Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Brown.

Miss Ina Rathbun has returned after a week's visit with friends in Ashaway, R. I.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Temple spent Sunday with relatives in Ashaway.

Mr. and Mrs. Guido Braunmiller, who were married in New York, and came to the village recently to reside, were tendered a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Egeir Manna, of High street, Saturday evening. The reception was attended by many residents of the village. The newlyweds were presented many gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Launeworthy were in New London on Tuesday.

Miss Grace Pike of New London spent the week with Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Brown of Pearl street.

Clarence Spink of New Haven, spent Sunday with relatives in the village.

Prof. Wayland Chester and son, Harry, of Hamilton, N. Y., are visiting relatives in town.

JEWETT CITY

The April meeting of the board of warden and burgesses was held on Monday evening. The fact that the debris resulting from a fire of nearly a year ago on Railroad avenue had never been cleared away and is most unsightly, and was reported by the nuisance committee, and the matter was left in their hands to adjust. The board of the fire company was present and stated the need of a thorough overhauling of the fire equipment. Referred to the fire committee. Several persons asked permission to build, referred to the building committee. The petitioners were: Nathan Babcock, a garage, John Holvea, a barn, E. Lloyd Miner, a dwelling and garage, Alex Pieracini an addition to his house. A letter was received from Anne Brewster Fanning chapter, D. A. R., asking permission to plant a tree, to bear a bronze tablet in Fanning park, in memory of the boys from Griswold who lost their lives in the world war. This petition was referred to the street committee.

The bond of Eugene LeClair as tax collector was accepted. The following bills were voted to be paid:

An Easter Monday hop was held in Rieux hall and was well patronized. The committee members were much pleased to be able to hand to the Slater Library trustees the sum of fourteen dollars.

Announcements have been received from Mrs. Mary Bennett, of Clifton, N. J., of the engagement of her daughter, Mabel Evelyn Bennett, to John Carlisle Barbour.

Even the borough's watchful police officers enjoys the shout of laughter whenever a group of Legion boys, and other people gather in front of some of the show windows in town, and read the posters which advertise the coming minstrels. G. H. Prior is the artist and his work has been supplemented by jokes on several young men, the work of unknown authors.

Middletown.—Mrs. E. Campton Acheson will address Holy Trinity branch of the Girls' Friendly society this (Wednesday) evening.
